

Uvlaami (Good Day),

Quyanainni (thank you) for wanting to learn about the Inuvialuit! Below is a list of online resources that share information on the Inuvialuit people, our culture, our language, and the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation that serves us.

1. Inuvialuit Final Agreement (IFA) 101: <http://ifa101.com/>

The IFA came into effect in 1984 and was the first comprehensive land claim agreement in the Northwest Territories. We ask that all those interested in learning about the Inuvialuit and the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation start by completing the e-learning IFA 101 course, to get started click on e-learning then sign up to begin. The course is free to everyone.

2. Inuvialuit Regional Corporation (IRC) website: <http://irc.inuvialuit.com>

The IRC was established with the overall responsibility of representing the Inuvialuit and their rights and benefits and managing the affairs of the settlement as outlined in the IFA. Its mandate is to continually improve the economic, social, and cultural well-being of the Inuvialuit through implementation of the IFA and by all other available means. The website has an abundance of information about Inuvialuit and the IRC, such as current programs available at IRC, our staff directory, media centre and more.

3. The Inuvialuit Digital Library: <https://inuvialuitdigitallibrary.ca/>

The Digital Library contains several resources including language lessons, books, photo collections, videos, and audio files.

4. Inuvialuit Regional Corporation YouTube channel:
